Apart from visiting some wonderful places, and trying new dishes, shopping is another activity people like to indulge in when they travel. You can come across great deals, and interesting discounts while strolling along a busy street, local market, or mall. Items you purchase during this period can serve as a gift back home or a memento.

If you're visiting Florida and you're close to Estero, you'll be pleased to spend some of your time in the Miromar outlet. The Outlets feature top designers and brand-name outlet stores offering savings of up to 70% off retail pricing.

This place is inarguably a top outlet. The store selection is extensive with great brands that stock high-quality items. There are great offers and additional center discounts, and a decent foreign currency exchange rate that makes the place for real bargains.

You might want to get the leaflet for discounts from the management shop, with that you stand to get extra discounts in most but not all shops.

The place offers a fun outdoor shopping experience with sunlit courtyards, covered walkways, colorful gardens, lush landscaping, and 10 fountains and koi ponds that are home to turtles and a family of Pekin ducks.

It features a huge parking lot, an award-winning children's playground with rock-climbing FunWalls, a year-round event and entertainment calendar, and an array of restaurants with indoor and outdoor seating.

Visiting this mall can turn out to be one of the best outlets you've visited. The place has most people's favorites including Michael Kors, Kate Spade, Nike, and Old Navy to name just a few. All of these stores are large and offer great sales.

You'll find that top brands like Ralph Lauren, Tommy Hilfiger, Fossil, and Calvin Klein are very affordable here compared to other places. And not only that there are lots of great shops and deals, but there are also terrific places to eat lunch. It's best to go early if you dislike crowds.

You might need a directory to navigate this wonderful place which also attracts lots of people from north Naples owing to its convenient location. It takes 15-20 minutes from North Naples via I-75 to arrive at the place.

Both the locals and visitors enjoy shopping at Miromar Mall. The place is beautiful with its many water fountains and flowers. Come with sunglasses, wear comfortable shoes, a sun hat and of course money. You should also leave some room in your stomach for food. The place has restaurants that offer different delicious cuisines.
